

Outstanding Emergency Manager or Program in Higher Education

This award recognizes an emergency management individual or program that supports an institution of higher education in the Commonwealth.

This award recognizes an EM professional and leader in Higher Education who exemplifies the Principles of Emergency Management.

This individual displays high principles of the Higher Education community preparedness and a personal dedication to the safety of faculty/students/staff as well as the local citizens within the community.

This Member has distinguished themselves through outstanding service to the Association or by exhibiting an exceptionally high standard of leadership and professionalism during a response to a disaster situation or in the preparedness phase of potential incidents and situations.